ADMINISTRATION

WALTER O. EDIGER, SUPERINTENDENT

To design is to plan, project or invent. It is to plan or contrive for a purpose. A design is a fixed purpose or plot.

In this yearbook you will find the result of planning and invention. You will see design—pictures mapped out in pleasant and meaningful arrangements. You will find names and script in corresponding arrangement.

As you scan the pages of this book you will become aware of a purpose. The purpose is to give you a realistic glimpse of Nebraska Christian High School 1966-67. The plot is clear and if you follow it you will be able to live a school year in retrospect.

May you also be able to sense a master plot. There is One who has a design for the life of each one pictured in this book. The purpose of the school depicted on these pages has been successful to the extent to which this design is being carried out. May His purpose and design be clear to you as well.

Walter O. Ediger

Mr. Ediger's time is occupied in a wide variety of ways. In addition to his work as administrator, he takes time to give chapel messages. He also shares the teaching load by teaching speech and Bible for the Juniors.

BACCALAUREATE MAY 14 ; COMMENCEMENT MAY 19

Those of us who will return to N. C. next fall will notice that a number of our friends have graduated and have gone on to other activities or institutions of learning. With them has gone a good deal of talent. These young people not only went on the Senior "Sneak" the weekend of April 29 but were also active in dramatics and speech, sports, music, school publications, class and school projects and held offices in the various dormitories. We have seen that these students have real potential for spiritual leadership. Our prayer is that they will follow in the footsteps of our Lord, "And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God." Ephesians 3:19.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Spiritual Emphasis Week

Romans study group—A result of spiritual emphasis week.

Special opportunity for spiritual life was offered as soon as students had become accustomed to the daily routine of school life. The third week of school, September 12 through the 16, Rev. Clyde White was the featured speaker of Spiritual Emphasis Week. Rev. White, pastor of a church in the Curtis, Nebraska area, presented the need of "being confessed up to date." He used I John 1:9 as the basis for his messages. He presented a challenge to all who heard him.

Prayer Meeting

The boys prayer meeting is held in their recreation room at 7:00 on Wednesday evening. A devotional is given by Mr. Stortz. After this prayer requests are given and the rest of the time is spent in prayer.

On Wednesday evening at 7:00 the girls of West Hall will either be in the music room of the Administration Building or they will meet in individual rooms for prayer meeting. The dorm officers have charge of planning the meeting. When the dorm meets together for prayer meeting the dorm officers plan a devotional then divide the girls into prayer groups. Leaders are appointed to take charge of the prayer groups which meet in individual rooms.

Whittier Hall girls meet together in the recreation room with roommates taking charge when it is their turn. The prayer meeting is composed of singing with a short devotional then the girls are divided into prayers groups.

Monthly Dress-up Dinners

The students and faculty of N.C.H.S. are all invited to the monthly semi-formal dress-up dinners. Some form of entertainment follows the dinner. This break in the daily schedule is enjoyed by all the students, even the servers.

JR.-SR. BANQUET

The seniors were honored by the juniors this year with a well planned banquet. The Jr.-Sr. Banquet had as its theme, "An Evening in Paris." The head table was placed under a canopy over the sidewalk cafe. The Arch of Triumph, Eiffel Tower, and a fountain were the main attractions. The Eiffel Tower served as the center pieces of the tables. After the dinner the juniors and seniors were favored with special music and a devotion on towers given by Mr. Ward Childerson.

Every Wednesday evening the students of N.C.H.S. are dismissed  $\frac{1}{2}$  hour early from evening study hall for an informal hour of recreation and enjoyment. Participation of students is on a voluntary basis. The students may buy "eats" at the candy store, play ping pong, box hockey, shuffle board, etc. or just sit and talk.

REFLECTOR STAFF

Left to right: G. Nickolaus, Editor; D. Warkentin, Sophomore Rep.; C. Becker, Freshman Rep.; M. Binder, Assistant Editor; Miss Schmidt, Sponsor; M. Thieszen, Business Manager; R. Rohn, Assistant Business Manager

You have been viewing the results of many extra meetings crammed in between regular ones. The annual staff has spent long hours attending yearbook workshops, taking pictures, cropping and scaling them, and typing copy, so that you may gain an insight to the activities and spirit of the students.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES

The student representatives were elected to represent their classmates in the following activities: work-days, organizing student chapels, planning the Christmas Banquet, and organizing special prayer meetings, etc.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE — HIGHEST SPIRITUAL STANDARDS

Approximately 20 majors and programs are available in the six academic divisions. In addition, specialization is also available within certain majors. For example, in history one may select an emphasis in Far Eastern, Western European, American, or Latin American.

Sutherland Hall, one of many major structures on campus. It contains classrooms, faculty and administrative offices, and the 800-seat Ethel L. Memorial Auditorium.

Dr. William Bass, Chairman of the Humanities Division, received his Ph.D. from the University of Southern California and a B.D. from Fuller Theological Seminary.

Dr. William Bass

Biola College is accredited with the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, and by the Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration. In addition, with accreditation through the Collegiate Division of the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges, Biola students receive from two to three times more Bible and doctrine than most other comparable Christian liberal arts colleges require.
